

21st ANNUAL SCARECROWS ALONG MAIN STREET

This will be the 21st year for this annual Fall event and once again dozens of scarecrows will line Main Street in the business section of Old Wethersfield. Sponsored by the Old Wethersfield Shopkeepers Association, Scarecrows Along Main Street runs from Saturday, September 24 through Sunday, October 23, 2016. This exciting display continues to draw visitors to the Historic District to see the many unusual and ingenious scarecrows built by children, families, adults, businesses and organizations. The event is free of charge and best enjoyed during daylight hours. Old Wethersfield is wonderful place to visit during the Fall season and the scarecrows are just one more reason to do so. Smiles are guaranteed.

Anyone interested in entering a scarecrow in the event or for more information, call 860.721-0663. Deadline for entries is September 17, 2016. An Awards Party hosted by the members of the Old Wethersfield Shopkeepers Association is provided for all those entering scarecrows in the event.

Nutting Weekend in Wethersfield
September 22-24
Lecture, Auction and Conference
Mark 100th Anniversary

The public is invited to a special Wallace Nutting Weekend in Wethersfield, September 22 -24, 2016, in conjunction with the Webb-Deane-Stevens Museum exhibition: "Wallace Nutting: Preservation Pioneer," which commemorates the 100th anniversary of Nutting's opening of the historic Joseph Webb House to the public. Hosted by the Wallace Nutting Collectors Club, the weekend includes the group's fall conference, including a lecture, auction, marketplace and presentations. Admission to all Wallace Nutting Weekend events is free. Tours of the Nutting exhibition at the Webb-Deane-Stevens Museum are $8. The exhibition is made possible with financial support from Connecticut Humanities, and will run through October 30, 2016.
