PROUD SUPPORTER OF

POLICE K-9 SAFETY AWARENESS

February 11-18, 2017

Police K-9 Safety Awareness Week

Thor, Wethersfield Police K-9 Officer, was killed on November 22, 2016 in the line of duty. The K-9 Officer died after suffering severe injuries while tracking an alleged kidnapping suspect.

In the wake of the Wethersfield Police Department K-9
Officer Thor's tragic death, The Hometown Foundation, Inc. established Police K-9 Safety Awareness Week in his DeChamplain, an accomplished jazz vocalist, will join Matt for a few numbers.

Tickets are $10 for Wethersfield Historical Society members and $12 for non-members and will be sold at the door. Snow date February 12. This concert is supported by the Robert Allan Keeney Memorial Fund and the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving. Proceeds from this event help support cultural and educational programming for adults and children. memory. His death brings to light the issue of police K-9s being lost, injured or stolen in the line of duty, and especially, during suspect apprehension. Keeping Police K-9 officers safe and accounted for is a top priority for police departments across Connecticut.

In honor of Police K-9 Safety Awareness Week, The Hometown Foundation, Inc. is raising money to outfit active police K-9s in select Connecticut towns with protective and training equipment (GPS collars, bullet proof vests, bite sleeves, etc.), training seminars, and grants for municipalities in need of K-9s.

Get involved February 11-18 and help save lives! Whether you're an individual, business, school or organization, you can help us make a difference!
