Wethersfield, Conn. (September 29, 2016) - During the 1800s, straw was often strewn onto the lid of a lowered coffin before the task of shoveling began, this and many bone-chilling, historical details will be shared during the Webb-Deane-Stevens Museum's annual Witches and Tombstones Tours on Saturday and Sunday, October 22 and 23, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. $15 per person. Space is limited and advance tickets may be purchased here: <http://webb-deane-stevens.org/witches-and-tombstones-tour/> *Please note - Witches and Tombstones Tours include walking on uneven ground and the use of stairs.
